DESTINATION WEDDINGS

SHAPED BY PLACE

Weddings On The Emerald Coast

Set along Nicaragua's Emerald Coast, Rancho Santana offers wedding professionals a distinctive destination for celebrations shaped with intention. Across 2,700 acres, five beaches, open-air venues, private residences, and thoughtfully crafted culinary experiences come together with heartfelt hospitality and a genuine sense of place for welcome gatherings, rehearsal dinners, ceremonies, receptions, and farewell events.

THE EXPERIENCE

Destination weddings ask for trust, local knowledge, and a setting that can hold every moment with ease. This guide brings together the elements planners need to begin shaping a celebration at Rancho Santana, from coastal venues and curated menus to florals, entertainment, photography, and local partners who know the property well.

THE SETTINGS

*Some places do more than host an event.
They give it a feeling.*

At Rancho Santana, weddings unfold across oceanfront terraces, shaded courtyards, intimate gardens, private dining spaces, and open-air settings shaped by the coast. For planners bringing clients to Nicaragua, our team helps match each gathering with the space that carries it best, from the first welcome toast to the final farewell.

CULINARY EXPERIENCES

The Banquet Menu

Food is one of the most personal ways to bring a celebration to life. The Rancho Santana Banquet Menu offers curated options for breakfast, lunch, dinner, themed nights, Chef's Table experiences, and wellness-inspired menus. Planners may explore classic, signature, and deluxe formats, with selections built around seasonal salads, farm-raised proteins, locally caught fish, thoughtful sides, house sauces, and desserts.

PRIVATE DINING & CHEF'S TABLE

For more intimate moments, planners may incorporate private dining or Chef's Table experiences. Created in collaboration with the Chef, these menus can be shaped around the occasion, guest preferences, and seasonal ingredients, with options inspired by the sea, the farm, and the flavors of Nicaragua.

FLORALS

Flowers at Rancho Santana are most beautiful when they feel connected to the setting. Bouquets, ceremony arrangements, centerpieces, and installations can be created with trusted floral partners who understand the property, the light, the climate, and the natural textures that make each venue feel its own.

LINENS & TABLETOP DECOR

From refined coastal palettes to Nicaraguan-inspired details, our trusted creative partners help planners shape linens, tabletop decor, and finishing touches that feel personal, considered, and beautifully connected to the setting.

DECOR PARTNERS

For planners working from abroad, these partners offer local expertise and a strong understanding of event design at Rancho Santana.

LA HORA LOCA

In traditional Nicaraguan weddings, midnight often belongs to La Hora Loca — a lively celebration moment filled with music, movement, and joyful surprise. For planners looking to bring a true sense of place into the evening, Rancho Santana can connect you with themed comparsa partners and chicheros, traditional brass bands that bring rhythm and local character to the dance floor.
