DESTINATION DISCOVERY

LOCALE

Nestled in the heart of sunny Cyprus, on the crossroad between Europe, Asia, and Middle East, Parklane Resort & Spa is the flagship property of cosmopolitan Limassol. Cyprus, is an Eastern Mediterranean island dating back to 9000 BC, with a legacy shaped by diverse civilizations. On its southern coast lies Limassol, the new jewel of the Mediterranean. This cosmopolitan, safe city blends beachfront life, modern design, rich traditions, and a lively dining scene–shining year-round. Centrally located between Cyprus' two main airports, Parklane provides easy access to this tapestry of culture, natural beauty, and indulgence.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

- Cyprus is home to the world's first perfumery, dating back over 4000 years. Legend says Cleopatra was enchanted by the island's scent that Mark Antony gifted it to her.
- Cyprus is the birthplace of Commandaria, the world's oldest named wine, dating back to 2000 BC. King Richard the Lionheart called it "the wine of kings, the king of wines".
- Lefkara lace impressed Leonardo da Vinci during his 1481 visit, leading him to buy a tablecloth and donate it to Milan's Duomo Cathedral.

OUR STORY

Our story begins 4,000 years ago with an amphora that used to store precious fragrances and aromas, discovered by archaeologists in 2003 inside an ancient perfume factory in Pyrgos village. An earthquake in 1850 BC destroyed the buildings and surroundings, but perfume bottles, mixing jugs, and stills were graciously preserved under the collapsed ruins. The artefacts are currently on display at the Capitolini Museum in Rome, alongside modern reproductions of the centuries-old scents. This perfume factory, the oldest in the world, is located next to the resort in Pyrgos village, affirming Cyprus' historical and cultural importance in the Mediterranean since prehistoric times.

Our logo is inspired by the amphora and its body is graced with an elegant star shape borrowed by Lefkara, a small, picturesque village where the art of embroidery and lacemaking, also known as "Lefkaritiko", evolved in the 16th century. Rumour has it that Leonardo Da Vinci, guest of Queen of Cyprus, returned to Italy with a "Lefkaritiko" lace tablecloth, which now adorns the Duomo chapel in Milan and has also inspired Harrods Interiors in the decoration and design of Parklane Resort & Spa.

THE LUXURY COLLECTION CONCIERGE

The Luxury Collection, a global portfolio of iconic hotels that immerse guests in the authentic culture and heritage of each destination. A key element of this experience is our Concierge team, who acts as a personal guide to the destination ensuring every stay is unique and unforgettable.

ARCHITECTURE & DESIGN

COMMON AREAS

Refined and grand, the interior design of Parklane Resort & Spa was undertaken by Harrods Interiors. Inspired by the Cypriot cultural heritage, the interior spaces are characterized by a muted palette with occasional pops of colour. The entrance path, reception wood panels, corridor carpets, and wallpapers are beautifully decorated and inspired by local art, paying homage to “Lefkaritiko” embroidery.

Common areas are tastefully furnished and decorated, while natural light floods in from the floor-to-ceiling windows, showcasing the surrounding Mediterranean landscape. The luxurious aesthetic is accentuated with unique art pieces by Atelier 27, Paris, adding a touch of artistic flair to the common areas, restaurants, and bars. Chandeliers gracefully handcrafted by Hunat are hung in the lobby area, reception desks, and at The Gallery, adding a touch of grandeur and glamour and perfectly complementing the opulent surroundings.

LOBBY AREA & RECEPTION DESKS

The grand lobby and reception desks are adorned with magnificent lighting installations made of hand-blown glass crafted by Hunat, a studio founded by the renowned glass artisan Jan Hunat. Inspired by the flower petals used in perfumery, these glass creations’ fluid motion evokes a graceful dance, filling the space with their captivating presence.

Within the hotel’s interiors, stone sculptures and architectural fragments are carefully placed, creating an atmosphere reminiscent of an archaeological museum. Crafted from a local stone that can be found at the nearby Amathus hill temple ruins, these elements showcase the reverence for this indigenous material.

The solid volumes and sculpted objects are arranged like a still-life composition, alternating between relief and statue. The installations seem to float in the stillness of time, capturing the essence of both ancient and contemporary philosophies.

THE GALLERY

A large wooden art piece named “Kyma” (meaning “wave”), created by the British designer Giles Miller Studio, adorns one of the walls, seamlessly connecting the lobby area to the captivating ambiance of The Gallery lounge bar. This signature artwork, specially designed for the resort, is a composition of walnut-coloured wood pieces that evoke a sense of movement, enhancing the guests’ initial sensory experience with its exquisite craftsmanship.

The lounge exudes a distinct character defined by neoclassical wall art, depicting human figures that pay homage to Cypriot culture and ancient Greeks. Complementing the ambiance are a large crystal chandelier crafted by Hunat and the iconic pendants above the bar, designed by Jan Plecháč and Henry Wielgus, radiating timeless elegance.
